VOL. 10, NO. 207 MONESSEN, PA., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1912 SIX CENTS THE WEEK

TWO ARE HELD FOR MURDER OF A FRIEND

At the coroner's inquest last night at 8:30, to inquire into the cause of the death of Mike Nemichek, Deputy Coroner W. H. Day empanelled a jury as follows: Eli Teuche, Geo. Stavetz, John Radacy, James Kennedy and Humphrey Neil. A number of witnesses were examined and the verdict of the jury was that Mike Nemichek came to his death from a blow on the head by some blunt instrument in the hands of a person unknown to the jury, and George Rovnak and Mike Simczyk were held on the charge of murder.

The following were held as witnesses to appear at a hearing and released on a forfeit of $25.00 each, Mike Rovnak, John Hovren, George Kostovsieick, V. Adancyzk, Mike Owanko, Andy Kostic and John Pop

The two men charged with the murder were taken to Greensburg jail today to await trial on a charge of murder. This trouble occurred at a christening at the home of John Rovnak at No. 1249 Morgan avenue about 9 o'clock Sunday night, and the man died at 10 o'clock a. m. Tuesday. It seems that some misunderstanding arose among the men in the house, and the feeling continued to grow as they carried the fight out into the yard. The man was struck and becoming unconscious the police was notified Chief Wheatley and Assistant Entinger made the round-up Tuesday morning by arresting the ones implicated where they were working at the different mills.

It seems that the man's skull was cracked and a large blood clot forming on the brain caused death. This was shown by the post morten examination made by Dr. Day.

From reports there was a lively time at the christening, and intoxicants were plentiful. Beer bottles, glasses. etc., were flying thick and fast, and it is supposed that the man was possibly struck on the head by a flying bottle.

The dead man was twenty one years of age.

Bill Butler Tonight

Bill Butler, saved in the Billy Sunday meetings, a power for God, will be with us tonight, in the Union Evangelistic services in the Baptist church. Hear him speak. Welch will sing. Don't miss it.

ENTERTAINMENT WAS A HUMMER

One of the musical events of the season was given by the enterprising firm of E. G. Hays and company under the management of their representatives Mr. J. O. Bair and Mr. C. H. Wilt, Monday evening, at their warerooms in the old Daily Independent building, before a large and appreciative audience. This entertainment was given to further introduce the Lester Piano in this section and was given free.

The program was of a varied nature, consisting of instrumental numbers, popular and classical songs, jokes, and witty stories. Also, a number of very pleasing selections were played on the celebrated Lester Interior Player Piano by Mr. J. O. Bair and were handled in a very masterly and pleasing manner and showed how nearly perfect the Player Pianos of to day can imitate the old time method of playing by hand. The Watson Sisters, late of London and New York Music Halls, were at their best in their original songs and instrumental numbers which they rendered in a pleasing and skillful manner, and received hearty applause. Mr. Luke Barnett of Braddock, Pa., one of the best known comedians in the State, took the part of an Irishman and was extremely amusing and kept the audience in a very happy mood. He was a rare treat and was greatly enjoyed by everyone. His jokes and story-telling will long be remembered.

It is not very often that Monessen is so fortunate as to have an entertainment of this kind wherein they may enjoy an evening of pleasure absolutely free and E. G. Hays and company are to be commended.

Thanks to Friends

We wish to tender our most sincere and heartfelt thanks to the neighbors and friends in appreciation of the innumerable kindnesses which were extended during the recent sickness and death of our beloved wife and mother, Emelia Peterson. We desire also to express our appreciation of the many floral offerings, and express our most ardent thanks to the donors thereof.

U. S. GOVERNMENT APPROVES BUICK

The government invited all the leading manufacturers of cars priced from $900 to $2,000 to submit a car in competition to a committee of expert mechanical men. These cars were driven to the designated place and the driver dismissed. The examination was then made with no representative of any of the cars present. Motor for motor, shaft for shaft, bolt for bolt the cars were compared, tested and appraised by the government experts. One by one the cars were eliminated until but one remained. It was the Buick. Of the 17 or 18 cars submitted the Buick alone stood the rigid test of quality and construction upon which the examination was based. This car was at once turned over to the government for immediate service 200 5t

PEOPLE STILL CROWDING THE BAPTIST CHURCH AT EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS

The Monessen people crowded the Baptist church to its utmost, last night in the union services; at 7 o'clock in the Christian church Rev. Wallace led a consecration service, saying in part, that consecration meant a cross and a duty, drawing from Christ's praying in agony while his disciples slept. Many audible prayers and several at a time giving themselves to Christ's service.

Mr. Porter and Mr. "Jack" Spade had led a shop prayer meeting at the Page works at the noon hour.

At 7:45 the Baptist church was jammed full. The choir filled the pulpit end, every voice eager to sing at Prof. Welch's direction.

Mr. Porter read the scripture from John 6th chapter, followed by a very impressive address from the text John 6:68, "to whom shall we go?" with humble utterance and sincere ring. He said: "Every one must answer this question. To the skeptic formalist shall we go? To the world of pleasure, business, fame, world's greatness or sin? Nay, all are failures as an end." Then with kindly word as an index finger at the cross roads, he pointed with tears in his eyes, to Jesus who has eternal life.

Then "Jack" Spade with difficulty found room to stand on the pulpit platform and continued his story of what Christ had done for him. He said he was a Scotch Irish Dutchman and wanted to do good, but before he found Jesus he had no power to do it. He told of the change that came on him one Saturday night at a church when forty-five men laid hold on him in prayer and the power came. For fourteen years Jack has never missed a church meeting except when sick. "Now I can milk a kicking cow and harness the old black kicking mare, Kate, without swearing, and have steak instead of liver for dinner. Serving Christ pays. Oh how I love Jesus for it. Don't run from one church to another. Nothing in it, you will lose out." Jack held his audience to the close of his address.

Mr. Welch sang a solo, "Does Jesus Care?"

Today a shop prayer meeting will be held at noon by the evangelists in the foundry. Prayer meeting tonight in the Christian church at 7 o'clock and at 7:45 the services will begin in the Baptist church, with overflow meeting in the Christian church if necessary.

At 2 p. m. tomorrow, Thursday, as follows prayer meetings will be held:

First street hill, Mrs. Pegg, 111 Reed avenue, leader. Rev. Alban.

Schoonmaker avenue, near the foundry, with Mrs. Sickels, Rev. Hughes leader.

Sixth street hill, 645 Reed avenue, at William Alexander's Rev. Jamieson, leader.

Persons to canvas the respective territory for these meetings are Mrs. Frank Philips, Mrs. J. M. Patton, Miss Sickels, Miss Boyd, Mrs. Jamieson, Mrs. McWatters Mrs. Powney, Thos. Agnew, Mrs Arthur Davis, Miss Eva Lear, Mrs. August Johnson, Mrs. E. M. Pyle, Prof. Drake, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. L. Peggs, Mrs. W. Smith, Mrs Wm. Alexander, Mrs. G. M. Mitchell, Mrs. Hattie Griffen, Mrs. M. Louis Eaton, Mrs. Lee Thomas, Mrs. W. S. Moore, Mrs. Fred Matson and Mrs. Pearl Bush.

"His Mother," a touching story of the self sacrifice of a mother for her son on the eve of a brilliant musical carreer. The boy is a musician and while playing for his mother in the evening after completing a day's toil he is heard by a rich American who is sightseeing in the neighborhood and who realizing his accomplishment invites him to visit him in America. The boy becomes a great musician and forgets his mother until she finally comes to him. Here the young man shows his true worth and the picture is happily ended.

N. E. SPROUSE WILL PREACH AT ELDORA

The people of Eldora have sent a call to Rev. N. E. Sprouse to open a church at that place and to be their pastor. Rev. Sprouse accepted, and on Sabbath afternoon Jan. 28th they opened by having their first services with a nice crowd attending. Services were held again last Sabbath night, Feb. 4th and one was converted during the meeting. The people have been holding Sabboth School for quite awhile, so prospects are that a nice church will soon be started with a large membership. We are glad to hear that Rev. Sprouse is again active in the church work and hope to see him succeed in the good work he has begun. It will be remembered that Rev. Sprouse preached the first sermon delivered in Monessen. He will be glad to have the people of this town come to their services and help him by their presence.

Star Theatre

Three good acts make up the bill at the Star theater this part of the week. Walker and Burrell present a strong musical comedy act introducing a Chinese burlesque on Salome. Their playing was good and all in all it is one of the best novelty musical acts seen here for some time. Amy Wilkins has a capable voice and uses it to good advantage in her singing. The bill is completed by a funny sketch entitled "A Stormy Knight" with Chester De Monde and Milured Dinsmore. The Stormy Knight is played by Mr. De Monde in a very pleasing manner and Miss Dinsmore as the mis-treated wife took her part well. The moving pictures were very interesting.

SUES HATCH CARNIVAL PROPRIETOR

An interesting little story is published today in the city papers to the effect that Miss Nina Noble, of Rome, N. Y., brought suit against J. Frank Hatch, the carnival man of Pittsburgh, on a charge of fraud, she having been declared the prettiest girl in the ring contest at the carnival at that place in July of 1907, and receiving what was purported to have been a $90.00 diamond ring, and with a big parade she was crowned "queen of the carnival." A later investigation proved the ring to be worth only $20.00 and the young lady brought suit against Mr. Hatch as stated, and the Omida county court has just ruled in her favor, giving judgment against Mr. Hatch for $70.00, the difference between the real value of the ring and the estimated value, along with the costs in the case, amounting in all to $144.35. It will be remembered that the Hatch Carnival Co. has several times pitched its tents in Monessen and two years ago wintered the paraphernalia on vacant lots at the lower end of the town.

NEW FOOTBALL RULES

Experience has shown that you cannot judge of the worth of new football rules until they have been tried. Those just adopted are radical in many ways. They provide for a somewhat shorter field, for more downs to a loss of the ball, give a better proportioned method of scoring and—what is most notable of all—permit scoring a touchdown by the forward pass.

Experts say that this will result in much more running on the field, will make mass plays less common and will run up scores to unheard-of figures. Some of them like the new rules and some do not. The fact that they differ so much among themselves as to what exact results will be, shows that one must wait for actual trial in the field.

If it makes the game more open, if it gives to agility and quickness of perception a larger chance as against brute force, and if—as prophesied—it makes a much more open game, the public seems certain to be satisfied. A good deal of tinkering with the rules in recent years has not produced all desired results. They may be long in coming, but at present the football public is anxious for anything that will make the game more spectacular and more easily understood in detail.

Isn't it strange that when a fellow only goes to church spasmotically that the preacher will nearly always preach at him and hand him something that belongs where it lands? Of course it often just seems so, for the speaker is really innocent of what is lurking in the mind that is following the discourse. It is the same story with the writer. Apparently harmless aphorisms are often construed to mean drives at certain people. The disease is in the mind of the man who puts the shoe on. The average writer makes general expressions and does not mean to insult individuals.

Jack Frost has made it very difficult this winter to enforce the snow or side-walk cleaning ordinance, for just about the time the business men and citizens on Donner and Schoonmaker avenue and elsewhere did get out their shovels and picks it snowed again and the snow became congealed into solid sheets of ice, and it continues to snow just a little more each day, so what are the poor folks to do but wait until another warm wave comes.

Whatever may be the individual opinion on the winter this year there can be no denial of the fact that it has given to this old earth some highly artistic touches. It has been worth enduring some cold and discomfort just to behold the beauty of the ice encrusted trees and myriads of frost crystals that glint in the sunlight on the fields, in the woodlands and across the moors.

And now comes a state law which will compel street railway companies to apply fenders to their cars. Even so, but generally the enforcement is up to the local officers, and how about it when such officers fail in their duty?

A dentist says that store teeth are more sanitary than the natural kind. That's false.

SICKLY CHILDREN

Made Strong and Rosy by Vinol—It Makes Them Eat

Pale, sickly children usually have poor appetites. But you can get them to eating heartily in a few days by giving them Vinol, our delicious tonic, in teaspoonful doses. There is a book in every package that tells exactly what to do for such children.

"Seven years ago when my little girl was two years old," says Mrs. Carl Wittenberg of Brooklyn, "she was quite delicate and we gave her Vinol. It helped her so much that this spring when a doctor said she had weak lungs and needed blood, I knew Vinol would do her good again. I started her on it right away and it does her far more good than all the doctor's medicines. I feel like we are putting new life into our little girl when we give her Vinol."

Children like to take Vinol for the taste is pleasant, and we guarantee that Vinol will build them up and make them strong—if it does not, we give back your money. Hirsch Drug Co., Monessen Pa.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Trouble

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that 98 per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored

Rexall Odrerlies are a positive, pleasant, and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and aid in producing a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea, or other annoying effects. They are especially good for children, weak persons, or old folks. Three sizes, 10c., 25., and 50c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. Craig's Drug Store.

BUSINESS MEN FILE COMPLAINTS

The business men of Jeannette and of Greensburg have held meetings and filed complaints against the C. D. and P. Tel. Co., and have decided to invite the Pennsylvania State Railroad Commission to the county seat to hear the complaints. The allegations against said company involve alleged unjust charges and raises in contracts for business and residence 'phones, and in changes of locations of 'phones, alleged unjust charges in toll and discrimination in both charges for contracts and for tolls; unequal rates and unfair practices in dealing with subscribers are also alleged against the company. To secure an adjustment of above complaints and fair and equal contracts and tolls is the purpose of calling the above commission to Greensburg.

CINDARELLA DREW WELL

One of the biggest crowds in the history of the Luna theater attended that popular little playhouse last evening to witness the $2500.00 production of Cinderella. All afternoon the people thronged into the spacious auditorium and in the evening they still came but in greater crowds until the management was put to an extreme test in handling them all. Manager Freeman and his able corps of assistants however had things well in hand. The show pleased every one, some even staying in for two or three performances and the management is certainly to be congratulated in having secured this picture.

JEANNNETTE MINISTERS AFTER CLUBS

An interesting fact is, that not long since a delegation of Jeannette ministers made a special trip to Franklin, Venango county, to look into facts relative to recent arrests and prosecutions there, putting an end to the selling of liquor by clubs or secret organizations, under no matter what guise.

This committee got their data. They came back home and formulated plans for action, and the result is that the "Ministerial Association of Jeannette has served written legal notices on constables in wards where fraternal orders, or clubs are located, to the effect that they shall make report to the February term of court, convening Monday, of all clubs or orders violating the liquor laws. The notices further stated that Jeannette ministers would be in the court room to furnish detailed data as to the violators and violations.

Jeannette ministers seem to be in earnest and say they will not relinquish their efforts until the desired results have been obtained. The clubs and fraternal orders named in the notices to constables are as follows: The Jeannette Drum Corps, The Black Cat, Eagles, Moose, Owls, Turn Verein, The Lafayette, and the German Miltary Clubs.

The ministers are also going after dens of vice, and two detectives were recently engaged to assist in the investigations.

Such should be, and no doubt will be, ere long, the steps taken in Monessen. It is bound to come, sooner, or later, and the sooner the better. There is plenty of material to work on, and here as elsewhere, there is gross violation, and the effects are deplorable. No matter who may be cramped, whatever is bad should be made good, as near as possible and as soon as practical. Now seems the propitious moment, so let the axe fall, regardless of where the chips may fly.

ADVERTISING TALK BY AN EXPERT

The daily newspaper was given the foremost place as an advertising medium in an address made Monday evening by W. T. Mossman, advertising manager for the Jones and Laughlin Steel Co., of Pittsburgh, before the class in journalism of the University of Pittsburgh. He said in part:

Advertising is not an amusement; it is a business. Advertising was both discovered and invented, in which respect it differs from any other modern forces. And it is still in process.

The advertising principles of today are not those of yesterday. Tomorrow they will have changed and gone forward still other steps. The progress has been so rapid and the methods so varied that there is not even a really authoritative textbook on this latest of the sciences, on this most stupendous of modern business, simply because in the United States alone more than $800,000,000 are spent on advertising every year. Some great business houses and transportation companies spending as much as a million each, the amounts ranging from that down to the sum of $50 or $100 a year, which is to him a fearsome outlay. You know, it takes courage to advertise.

Now to the mediums of advertising. Many of them have been tried. Most of them have been rejected or at least relegated to secondary or auxiliary place. Today the one great universal medium of advertising is the periodical, whether it be the monthly magazine, the weekly review or the daily newspapers. All other forms of advertising have been made auxiliaries, lending additional force to the one great medium, the publication.

Some of the National advertisers have used the daily newspapers and with amazing results. Everybody reads a newspaper. If you have something to sell to somebody you can advertise it in the newspaper and sell it. Magazine advertising is class advertising. Newspaper advertising has no such distinction. The newspaper goes into the home of the millionaire and the day laborer. The newspaper is the one medium for reaching women, especially the afternoon paper. Women influence the home buying, actually doing it themselves in most instances.

Convenient Marketing

The years have swallowed up the market basket with the candle and the spinning wheel. The modern housewife pulls up a chair to the Bell Telephone—the stores now come to her.

BELLFIELD MUICAL PEOPLE ARE COMING

The Bellfield Quartette are to give a musical and literary concert in St. Pauls Evangelical Lutheran church on Friday evening, Feb. 23d at 8 o'clock. This will be one among the best entertainments given in Monessen during the winter, and none who are fond of good music and literary work should miss it, as these people came most highly recommended. Their being blind does not affect their ability in the least, and the entertainment they give is of the very highest order. Be sure and go. Eighth street and Donner avenue.

BURGESS REAMER PROHIBITS USE OF DRINKS

As a consequence of the recent murder which occurred at a christining on Morgan avenue, as well as many other happenings of a lesser degree, Burgess Daniel Reamer, issues today the following edict:

"To whom it concerns:—Notice is hereby given that the use of intoxicating liquors—beers, whiskey, etc., is absolutely forbidden and prohibited at all weddings, christenings, balls, dances, and public gatherings.

Any violation of this order will result in the immediate arrest and prosecution of the parties so offending."

Many have been the cases resulting disastrously and a number fatally within our town from just this indulgence, especially among the foreign element of the lower classes, and this ruling comes at an opportune time, although had it come sooner, at least one life might have been saved and the taxpayers of the county relieved of much unnecessary expense. It is to be hoped the order will be enforced to its fullest extent and all offenders punished.

FOR AN AFTERNOON AT PLAY

Mrs. Oldway Made Up Both as to Mind and Costume to Enjoy Little Driversion.

It was on one of those rare occasions when Mrs. Oldway tore herself away from her domestic duties to seek amusement in the neighboring town, and, dressed in her best, she stood on the roadside, waiting for a trolley car to take her to the moving picture show.

"Are you going alone, Mrs. Oldway?" some one asked.

"I presume I am," she replied with the additional elegance and condescension of manner which she always put on with her best gown. "My daughter Eleanor has the supper dishes to wash, and it is hardly impossible that she can complete her task in time to take the car with me. But I never repine at loneliness, and these moving picture shows get one's mind so excited that one can't hardly help thinking of anything else Last time I attended one there was quite a crowd, for it was bargain day at Rockville, and the country people had come to town to advantage themselves of the opportunity to purchase cheaply. I had to stand through the entire performance. But I never minded. I find these little driversions greatly relieve the monopoly——" Here the trolley car arrived and whisked Mrs. Oldway off to her "little driversion."

END OF AN OLD SUPERSTITION

Height of Present New York Buildings Discourages Youngsters There to Seek Fortune.

Said a New York octogenarian:

"The height of buildings in New York has dealt a death blow to an old superstition that animated many a country youth who came here to make his fortune 60 years ago. Heaven knows how they came by the belief, but most of those up-state boys came to the city thinking that if they could toss a coin over a house they took a fancy to at the first try, the house would be theirs some day.

"It was one of my surest convictions, and I put it to a test immediately after paying for my first meal in New York. The only money I had left was an old-fashioned three-cent piece. With that in my hand I walked around looking for a desirable piece of property. Pretty soon a corner lot on which stood a two-story-and-a-half brick house took my eye.

"I had practiced coin throwing in the country, so I let my three-cent piece go for all it was worth over the front of the house and ran around to the back to see where it landed. It went clean over. I knew then that that house and lot would be mine in due time, and sure enough they were. People don't woo fortune by flipping coins these days. The fellow whose success depends upon tossing a three-cent piece over the Singer building would be in a pretty bad fix."

PICK ODD NOOKS FOR NESTS

Swallows Are Cunning Builders But Sometimes Select Precarious Sites for Homes.

Swallows are diligent and cunning builders of nests, but they are not always wise in their choice of a locality. In proof of this a couple of birds last year chose a secluded corner among the rafters of my barn and managed to hatch and rear their young successfully.

This year a couple, probably the same, repaired the nest and laid their eggs. But one morning both birds were found lying dead on the floor, the windows having been closed and the door locked by a too careful servant A favorite place for a swallow to build its nest is the upper corner of a window.

This situation is to say the least precarious, as an energetic housemaid has merely unintentionally or otherwise to draw down the sash and the nest is at once in ruins. I remember once quite unintentionally acting the part of the energetic housemaid. I drew down the sash and managed just in time to save the structure from falling to pieces

Supporting it with my hands, I told one of my boys to bring his schoolbag, and having fastened it securely to the window, deposited therein the remains of the nest and the young family of birds

The parents were shy at first, but on closer investigation, having satisfied themselves that their little ones were still alive they accommodated themselves to the situation and brought up their family in the usual way, sending them at length into the world doubtless all the wiser for their nurture in this abode of learning. A similar misfortune happened this summer to a swallow's nest in the window of a cottage in the Cheviot hills.

This time the nest was almost totally destroyed, but help came from a probably unlooked-for quarter. The dismayed cries of the feathered builders attracted their companions, who flocked around in large number and rendered every assistance in repairing the damage—The Scotsman.

BROWNING WAS NOT A SNOB

When a Cook Came to See Some Pictures He Offered Her His Arm.

A trivial anecdote occurs to me which has nothing to do with the "Countesses" who were supposed to absorb Mr. Browning overmuch. It appeared that on one occasion Mr Browning's son had hired a room in a neighboring house in which to exhibit his pictures In the temporary absence of the artist, Mr. Browning was doing the honors, the room being half filled with fashionable friends Mr Browning was standing near the door when a visitor, unannounced, made her appearance, he immediately shook hands with the stranger, or tried to do so, when she exclaimed·

"Oh, I beg your pardon, s'r, I'm the cook Mr Barrett asked me to come and see his pictures" "And I am very glad to see you," said Mr. Browning, with ready courtesy "Take my arm and I will show you around." —Mrs Andress Crossee, "Red Letter Days of My Life."

Crushed by a Caddie.

"It is not always safe to fish for compliments," says a Washington man, who travels quite a bit, "and I recently learned a lesson in this regard from a caddie attached to a golf club near this town.

"I was going round the links one afternoon and making a dreadful exhibition of myself. I did not, however, know that my caddie was fully aware of this, as he seemed so blissfully unconscious that anything was wrong. He was a nice, freckled little Irishman, and I took quite a fancy to him, especially as never a hint came from him that I was doing badly. At the end of the round, in the hope of a 'jolly' from the lad, I ventured to observe:

"'I've been traveling for the last two months, and am dreadfully out of practice That's why I'm in such bad form today'

"To which the caddie calmly replied· "Oh, then ye've played before, sir!'"

For Those Who Hear Not.

The hallboy had fairly split his throat shouting directions to deaf persons who had called to see Mr. Schwartz. Mr Schwartz lived in the fourth floor rear, right-hand apartment, through the long hall and up the back stairs It took a good deal of shouting to make some folks understand that.

"I never saw so many deaf people in my life," said the boy "What on earth are they all running up to Schwartz's for?"

"Mr. Schwartz has advertised a deaf man's phonograph for sale," said a neighbor "He is very hard of hearing. The phonograph was made especially for him It has an unusually loud tone. Nobody but the hard-of-hearing can live with such entertainment. Mr. Schwartz, to save trouble, has advertised for a deaf purchaser."

Her Mind Relieved.

"Charley, dear," said young Mrs. Torkins, "what is a jackpot?"

"Why—er—a jackpot is a general contribution for purposes of charitable donation"

"Oh! Do you know I was afraid it had something to do with the wickedness of politics!"

TO ALLAY EYE IRRITATION

Simple Wash Made From Saturated Solution of Boracic Acid Is Very Soothing.

When one is forced to work under a light that is placed too high for eye comfort and cannot be readily adjusted it is far better to use an opaque green shade over the eyes than to allow the sight to become permanently injured.

A good quality of these can be purchased at your stationer's for the modest sum of a quarter and the relief you will find in them will be more than worth the small expense.

Should the eyes become irritated near the eyelash use a wash of lukewarm sterilized water having diluted therein as much boraic acid as the water will take up.

One can prepare a pint bottle of this and have it ready for use at any time. The only thing necessary would be to place the bottle in a cup of warm water so as to make it lukewarm before using.

Should a white sediment form at the bottom is by no means spoiled, as this is only a very small extra quantity of the boracic asid which has been absorbed by the water and is in no way harmful.

More than a certain quantity, say a heaped teaspoonful to a pint of water, will not be absorbed, so there is no fear of making the water too soft, as only a certain degree can be achieved in this direction.

Use of this when the lids become irritated, applying with a well-cleaned eyecup, will save you from many a painful and patience trying stye, an abscess of the eyelid that is most discomforting and which make their appearance at the most inopportune times.

HE CURED THE HAY FEVER

Cleveland Man's Attempt Rather Strenuous Affair, But It Worked.

An east end man with a bad case of hay fever heard that a sojourn in a beer cellar, or a packing house refrigerator would relieve the distressing malady. He had no entree to beer cellars, and all the packing houses were too far away.

So he went into the pantry and after removing the eatables from the upper portion of the icebox, put his head into close conjunction with a 50-pound lump of ice. In this manner he hoped to freeze out the annoying germs.

It was a slow process and not altogether comfortable, but everything—including the germs—appeared to be going all right—when the convalescent happened to push the box too close to the wall, and the 40-pound cover suddenly dropped on his defenseless head like a vicious piledriver.

For a moment the dazzled victim believed that his throat was cut and his skull smashed by the same blow. But he managed presently to extricate himself and bellow for help.

Two days later the only reminder of his cruel experience was a lump on the back of his head as big as a green tomato.

And every vestige of hay fever had left him!—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

In a Japanese Temple.

"Asakuse Temple is dedicated to the goddess Kwannon, a tiny image of gold, about two and a half inches high," writes a traveler in Japan. "At the entrance to the temple grounds on either side of the immense gate stand two large and fearful looking figures, guarding the sacred precincts. Hanging outside the wire grating are a number of sandals for their use if they wish to take a walk, and rice is sprinkled about. Each worshiper, before entering the temple, calls at a small building, and after contributing a small amount, washes his hands and rinses his mouth.

"In front of the main shrine is a large aperture in the floor, covered with lattice work, into which the worshiper casts his gift. After clapping his hands to awaken or attract the attention of the god he kneels, but his prayer is only brief. While there is one chief shrine, there are many others under the same roof.

"One shrine especially attracted my attention; it was made of wood, and quite disfigured and worn through the constant rubbing of hands on the spot corresponding to the afflicted portions of the sufferers' bodies."

Best He Could Do.

When Ralph Delmore, who was assisting in staging "The Confession," was giving instructions one day to the actors as to what they should wear during the snow storm in the first act, he said: "I want every one to wear their heaviest overcoats during this scene, as it is supposed to be the coldest night in twenty years. Now, don't forget this." Mr. Delmore repeated this order several times to impress it on the minds of the actors, when one of them, undoubtedly new to the stage and who had no lines at all to speak, approached him. "I have no overcoat, Mr. Delmore, but suppose I wear my heavy flannel underwear?"—Kansas City Star.

After reading the public statement of this fellow sufferer given below, you must come to this conclusion: "A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the kidneys in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work in other cases. Read this:

John H. Hixenbaugh, 108 Wood street, Belle Vernon, Pa., says: "I suffered from kidney trouble for three years. My back became lame and sore and it was necessary for me to give up my work. I finally learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procuring a supply, I began their use. The contents of four boxes effected a complete cure." (Statement given September 3, 1909.)

A LASTING EFFECT

On Nov. 12, 1909, Mr. Hixenbaugh, said: "I do not hesitate to confirm the statement I gave for publication in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills two years ago. The cure they effected in my case was practically permanent, but I have used Doan's Kidney Pills on several occasions since then, finding that they keep my kidneys in good working order."

One lot of women's $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00 hats, remnant sale price $1.00

The mere announcement is enough to crowd the store. Each department has some splendid values. Come early and secure your share. Interesting as these sales are it will be more so from the number of every day necessities that will be put out at remnant prices. It is your last opportunity—Come. Piles and piles of remnants of all kinds—some large, some small—all good and sold at tremendous cuts. Look for the red mark, that's what does the business. Remnant day prices hold good till Feb. 15.
